PROSPECTUS OF FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

The "FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE" is a monthly, designed for preservation as a document for reference or for general circulation, as a Free Democratic Mis sionary, especially among those not yet familiar with the Anti-Slavery movement. It will be composed chiefly of articles from the National Era, adapted particularly to the purpose named.

Each number will contain eight pages, and be printed on good paper, of the size of the Congressional Globe, in quarto form, suitable for binding.

It will be furnished at the following rates, by the year, twelve numbers constituting a volume :

Six copies to one address - - - $1 Twenty copies to one address - - 3 One hundred copies to one address - 12

$12, supply Anti-Slavery reading every month, for a whole year, to one hundred readers. Single subscribers will not be received. Send for a club, and order it to one address. The postage is a trifle-only half a cent a number, six cents a year, paid in advance at the office where the paper is received. IF All payments must be in advance. G. BAILEY.

P. S. Editors of newspapers favorable to the foregoing will entitle themselves to six copies of the monthly, by publishing the Prospectus, and directing Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chievalue, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, main tains its ancient colobrity, and is at this time unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxons" and "My New Novel," both by Bulwer; "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Black wood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co. so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely upon having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEMPERANCE TALE. MRS. BEN DARBY;

THE WEAL AND WOE OF SOCIAL LIFE. One Volume 12mo, $1.

THE object of this tale is to exhibit in different phases, in high life and low life, the accursed effects of intemperate drinking, the bane of social life, the curse of civilized man. The characters are well and sharply drawn, and the various scenes are described with much spirit and graphic effect. * *

We are disposed to regard the book as the best of its kind that has yet appeared.—Boston Traveller.

It is not often that we read a story of any kind, but we have broken our practice, and have read this book. not only with pleasure, but with a gratification which but very few novels have ever afforded us. It is a quiet and simple, but still striking and effective picture of American social life.—Chicago Tribune.

Written with marked ability .- Zanesville Courier. A thrilling picture of the effects of that infernal bane of social life, intemperance.—Richmond Palladium. The style is attractive and fascinating; there is a

Has so many thrilling passages and well-drawn characters, that you read it with absorbed attention. It cannot fail to achieve for Mrs. Collins an enviable popularity. She takes us with her to the drunkard's home, and tells of the hunger, and the fear, the toil and the suffering, that are there. She paints, with a woman's delicate skill, the meck patience, the long-abused, but unchanging love of the drunkard's wife, touches the deepest chords of the heart, and makes them vibrate with pity and with indignation. PROSPECTUS FOR 1864.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT. THE Proprietors of the POST, in again coming before the public, would return thanks for the geneorus patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other literary weekly in America; and as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of liberality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged, as contributors for the ensuing year, the following brilliant array of talent and genius: Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Deni son, Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern. In the first paper of January next, we design com-name an Original Novolet, written expressly four columns, entitled THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS,

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT! ELEVENTH VOLUME OF THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST,

THE LEADING

Weekly Agricultural Paper of the Country.

THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, a weekly Periodical of sixteen large quarto pages, making an annual volume of 832 pages of nearly double the size of those in the first ten volumes of the Agriculturist.

It is beautifully printed with type cast expressly for it, and on the best of clear white paper, with wide margin, so that the numbers can be easily stitched or bound together.

A copious Index is weekly added, which will be fully amplified at the end of the year, for the bound work.

Each volume will contain all matter worth recording, which transpires either at home or abroad, and which can serve to instruct or interest the Faruer, the Planter, the Fruit-Grower, the Gardener, and the Stock Breeder; thus making it the most complete and useful Agricultural Poblication of the day.

Correct and valuable Market Reports. Correct and valuable Market Reports.

The Markets will be carefully reported, giving the actual transactions which take place from week to week, in Grain, Provisions, Cattle, &c., thus keeping our readers constantly and reliably advised as to their interests. During the past year, the knowledge obtained from these Market Reports alone has saved our readers thousands of dollars, by informing them of the best time to sell or purchase.

our readers thousands of dollars, by informing them of the best time to sell or purchase.

Such a Paper is demanded by the Farming Community.

The publishers confidently believe that the agriculturists of this country are becoming too much awake to the demands of their own calling to be longer satisfied with the slow monthly issues of a paper professedly devoted to their interests, or to trust alone to the irresponsible extracts in a "farmer's column," so popular just now in papers chiefly devoted to business, politics, or literature; and they look for the united support of all the intelligent farmers of this country in their continued effort to farmish a weekly paper of a high and reliable character, which shall be progressive, and at the same time cautious and conservative in all its teachings.

Essentially an Agricultural Paper.

The Agriculturist will not depart from its legitimate sphere to catch popular favor by lumbering up its pages, with the silly, fictitious literature, and light, miscellaneous matter of the day; it has a higher aim; and a small part only of its space will be devoted to matters not immediately pertaining to the great business of Agriculture. The household as well as the out-door work of the farm will receive a due share of attention. The humbugs and nostroms affont in the community will be tried by reliable scientific rules, and their worthlessness exposed. It is the aim of the publishers to keep this paper under the guidance of those who will make it a standard work, which shall communicate to its readers only that which is safe and reliable.

The Agriculturist stands upon its own that which is safe and roliable.

An Independent Journal.

The American Agriculturist stands upon its own merits; and the truthfulness, zeal, and ability, which it brings to the support of the interests of the farmer. It is untrammeled by any collateral business connections whatever; nor is it the organ of any clique, or the puffing machine of any man or thing. Thoroughly independent in all points, its ample pages are studiously given alone to the support and improvement of the great agricultural class.

Editorial Department.

The American Agriculturist is under the editorial

The following is an extract of a letter from Hon William Jay to the author:

"Your analysis of the slave laws is very able, and your exhibition of their practical application by the Southern courts evinces great and careful research. Your book is as impregnable against the charge of exaggeration as Euclid's Geometry, since, like that, it consists of propositions and demonstrations. The book is not only true, but it is unquestionably true."
